

Internship Announcement
Unpaid Undergraduate Intern

The Political Asylum/Immigration Representation (PAIR) Project is the leading provider of pro bono representation to low-income asylum-seekers in Massachusetts and immigrants unjustly detained by ICE. PAIR has an opening for Summer 2022 for a highly organized, energetic, detail-oriented, responsible undergraduate student with excellent interpersonal skills, written and oral skills for a full-time remote internship. We ask for a full-time commitment for at least 10 weeks. This internship would be unpaid.

Position Description:

The PAIR Project will host a student interested in serving asylum seekers, detained immigrants, and youth in the greater Boston region. An undergraduate intern would work to support the Asylum and Detention Programs, which includes assisting with interpretation, translation, country conditions research, client services as needed, follow up phone intake, and general administrative tasks.

This position includes extensive contact with many types of people including those who have suffered abuse and other physical and emotional trauma.

Qualifications:

- Fluency or advanced proficiency in Spanish, Portuguese, Haitian Creole, or French is highly preferred
- Strong writing, research, and communication skills
- Demonstrated commitment to advocating for indigent immigrant clients in a respectful and empowering way and displays a commitment to diversity and inclusion
- Cultural sensitivity and ability to relate well and effectively in a diverse workplace with diverse client population
- Clear oral and strong written communication skills; active listening
- Critical thinking, problem solving, and leadership
- Strong organizational ability and detail-oriented approach
- Knowledge and proficiency of online platforms such as Google Suite, Slack and Zoom
- Must pass clearance process for detention visits

Application Process:

To apply, please submit a resume and cover letter to career@pairproject.org with “Summer 2022 Undergraduate Internship” in the subject line. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until February 28th, and applicants are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. Only applicants selected for an interview will be contacted. PAIR is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to inclusive hiring and dedicated to diversity in both its staff, interns, and work.
